The rules of course discussion

- Everyone can discuss, but each person should not speak for over 2 minutes
- When one person is speaking, others should not talk and should listen attentively
- Maintain the atmosphere of discussion: the aim is to find out the truth, know more about God, don't insist on personal opinions
- When the discussion involves the privacy of any individual, group members must respect confidentiality and cannot disclose any privacy issue to others
- The mentor has full responsibility of handling all matters in relation to leading the discussion
